At first it might seem like a pay-to-win game, but if you're like me and don't bother too much about the Heroic dragons, you don't necessarily need to pay. Game is addictive and I play every day! You can play with friends too, (using clans, or if you sign into Facebook) If you're wondering if it's okay for your children it's perfectly fine! Just make sure they know not to click on ads, and not to spend money." — Ruby Shoubridge Note: If you find any issue with the download or installation, then feel free and comment below. Thank you.
