

Continue

Ryanair's Madrid Training Centre: €100m Investment Creates 150 Jobs The Irish low-cost airline Ryanair has chosen Madrid as the location for its new training centre, investing €100 million in the project. The centre will have space to train up to 250 pilots and cabin crew members daily, using six Boeing 737 flight simulators. In addition to the training centre, Ryanair announced four new routes from Madrid for winter 2023/24: Agaba, Essauira, Liverpool, and Treviso. Fifteen existing routes will see increased frequencies, including Amman, Birmingham, Krakow, Prague, and Rome. Ryanair's CEO, Eddie Wilson, said in Madrid that the new training centre would create 150 local jobs and provide aspiring aviation professionals with access to state-of-the-art facilities and world-leading training. The airline plans to grow its fleet to 390 Boeing 737 aircraft by 2034 and transport over 300 million passengers annually. Want to join Ryanair's cabin crew? The airline is currently accepting applications for new recruits, who will undergo comprehensive free training before joining the team. No prior experience is necessary, as Ryanair's training courses cover all essential skills required for the job. Once trained, cabin crew members will enjoy benefits such as unlimited travel discounts across 250+ destinations, a competitive salary package, and a '5 on 3 off' roster. As a member of Ryanair's cabin crew family, career opportunities are endless, including becoming a supervisor or even director of inflight services. However, the job demands flexibility, with early morning shifts and late returns possible. If you're up for the challenge, apply now to join Europe's largest airline group! Are you looking for a fast-paced career with loads of enthusiasm? Ryanair is hiring customer-orientated individuals to join their crew! To be considered, you'll need to pass two assessments: an English proficiency test and a situational judgement test. Don't worry, it's not as scary as it sounds! Ryanair takes care of its crew, offering competitive salaries and benefits to over 200 destinations in 40 countries. Before you start the application process, make sure your CV is up-to-date. Here's how: Step 1: Online Application The first step is to fill out Ryanair's online application form. This requires: - Personal details - Education details - Employment details - A summary of yourself (this is a great place to mention any customer service experience) - Simple "yes" or "no" questions about your eligibility Step 2: Online Interview If your application is successful, you'll receive an email inviting you to schedule a virtual interview. This may take a little while to come through, but don't worry - the airline has adapted its recruitment process due to Covid-13. Step 3: The Interview Your online interview will include questions about your experience and suitability for a Cabin Crew role. Here are some tips: - Be friendly and outgoing - Show off your customer service skills - Demonstrate a can-do attitude Good luck, and don't forget to check the job description carefully! Make a great impression by being on time, courteous, and engaging with eye contact and a warm smile! Sometimes, interviews involve pre-recorded questions - find tips for video interviews here. This is your chance to showcase your skills and demonstrate how you can meet the airline's requirements. It's crucial to prepare well for this opportunity. Use our guide to get ready now! After the interview, your overall application and performance will be evaluated. If successful, you should hear back within a few days. Pre-employment checks include: • Criminal record checks • Verifying references provided • Reviewing work and/or education history from the past 5 years (including any gaps) • A basic medical examination to ensure physical fitness for the job.

Where is ryanair cabin crew training centre uk. Where is ryanair cabin crew training centre. How long is ryanair cabin crew training. Ryanair cabin crew roster. Where is the ryanair training centre.