I won the battle in the world. - This is "he puts things that I spoke to you, so that in me you might have peace. In the world you have a tribulation, but take courage; I passed the world. John 16:33 Ą ĩ Ą,~ "I told you these things, so that in me you might have peace. In this world, you will have problems. But take the heart! I have passed the world. The explanation and the comment of John 16: 33 Gesus tells us to take his yoke and will be easy, and that his burden is light (Mt 11:30). But nowhere promises that there will be no external problems from the fallen world we live, or that God has not won for us a bit of refining the fire for our good and its glory. Our teacher and our Savior have suffered a lot in the hands of evil men. In this life, we take care of the disease tests, tragedy , natural disasters and malevolence and again, for the Christian, we are able to walk through everything with peace and purpose. The life that God calls us is wonderful because Jesus has overcome the world. Christ suffered powerfully because God He called him to suffer. And yet, the author of Jews says that Christ was greasy with the Ą ĩ Ą,~ Ą "Oil of JoyĄ ĩ Ą,~ (EBB 1: 9) .ve, Jesus promises peace. If we trust him and faithfully walk in our lives through what God has for us, being grateful (1 Tes 5:18) for every little blessing, we will live a life of joy and peace in the presence of God. Parties to John 16: 33 # 1 Ą ĩ Ą,~ "I told you these things, Ą ĩ Ą,~" previously in the same chapter, Jesus said to the disciples who is leaving them soon, who will suffer, that they will suffer, and also that they would sprease Everyone and leave it only in his biggest hour of need. But he also told them who rejoiced after mourning for a while. He told them that he would send his Holy Spirit to comfort them and guided them. # 2 Ą ĩ Ą,~ "So you could have peace in me." It was not the information that had to bring peace. Although he would help when the problem came for them to remember that Jesus had been prophetic in him warning of him, their peace would be in Christ. Looking for peace anywhere else is a trap. Other methods to find peace or security lead only to anxiety. The peace that we find in Christ is eternal and will resist any circumstances. # 3 Ą ĩ Ą,~ "In this world you will have problems." Place any false doctrine of prosperity. Do not make mistakes, looking for the kingdom of God and justice of him (Mt 6:33) and living wisely up to God will make it very likely that you will prosper, but nobody, Christian or non-Christian, avoids problems in this life if they live a lot long. # 4 Ą ĩ Ą,~ "But take heart! Ą ĩ Ą,~ To take heart means to cimit your courage or be encouraged. The words of Jesus are destined to incorporate and strengthen our spirit for the struggle forward. # 5 Ą ĩ Ą,~ "I passed the world. When Jesus spoke these words he had not yet faced his process in the garden of Getsemane. He had not yet suffered the mockery, beating, spitting and torture by the hand of the Jews and Romans. He had not yet been abandoned by all the followers of him, betrayed by the disciple, or denied by one of him friends of him more expensive than him. He had not yet been hung to a cross and abandoned by his father for the only time throughout eternity. And yet, that he had already overcome the world was evident in the tense he used (I, rather than I'll do). He would face what he had to come because he was the lamb killed by the foundation of the world (Rev 13: 8). Like the followers of him, we too can face anything because, in him, we too have passed. Take the heart and go out what God has for you for your joy and the glory of him .bible studio with comments on John 16: 33Sermon on John Biblical Translations by John 16: 33NIV I told you these things, so that in me you might have peace.
