Stardew valley cross stitch guide pdf

Been a while since I remembered tumblr existed, so here's one of my favorite cross stitch pieces I've done since my last post. ;)I wanted to play around with backstitch, quarter stitches, and half stitches.I hope I did this fella justice. :3Pattern available via Etsy or Patreon. zinthings:I don't understand you, Tumblr. Anyway here's another time lapse with a pattern from @sirithre because I don't even go here but this is a groovy design. It's official! You can now preorder the Stardew Valley Cross Stitch book! Only on Fangamer!Free US shipping and discounted international shipping until Nov 27th! Go! Go! Go! we updated the preview to reflect the current design, and fit in more patterns! Be sure to download the latest preview to tide you over until it ships! ;) As a break from all the Stardew stuff, I've been making pendants! These will be on sale at TwitchCon, so stop by my booth if you're attending! ;)Also, I posted a tutorial on how to make these pendants over at CrossStitch.Live! you find it useful. Here's some stardew stuff I've made recently. Follow on twitter or instagram if you actually want to see stuff as I make them. ;) /www.twitter.com/sirithre/ The latest of my cross stitch Stardew portraits! That makes 6 on my wall, and 8 stitched in all. Patterns available on my Etsy. The 7th Stardew portrait I've stitched is done!Sebastian and beta-hair Abigail were stitched around launch and were given away on my Twitch stream to celebrate the launch of the game, thus I no longer have them on hand. :(Since CA changed Abby's hair twice more in beta I decided to go ahead and stitch an updated version of Abigail for my wall. ;) I'll probably stitch Seb again, as he was my first love.
