A prospective juror may apply for excusal or postponement upon showing that jury service would cause undue hardship or extreme inconvenience to the applicant, a person under their care or supervision, or the public. Postponements are to be filed for with an alternative date within 6 months of the original and on which court will be in session. No statewide automatic exemptions. Provisions vary by county and are at the discretion of each summoning court. Can I Get Excused From Jury Duty Because I Work? In New York, your employer is not allowed to penalize you for missing work for jury duty. Therefore, simply having a job isn't in itself enough to be excused from jury duty. However, some courts may excuse you if serving on a jury and missing work would cause undue hardship to either yourself or your employer. Submitting A Jury Duty Excuse Letter If you do not qualify for any of the New York statutory exemptions listed above but seriously think that attending jury selection would cause you undue hardship, you can always submit a jury duty excuse letter with your response to the summons, and ask to be excused. It will be at the discretion of the court that summoned you whether to accept or deny your excuse. Remember - A Jury Selection Summons Doesn't Mean You'll Be On A Jury Keep in mind that your initial jury duty summons is only for attending jury selection day, where it will be decided if you are to actually serve on a jury during the "Voir Dire" process. If you can't get out of attending jury selection, there are many ways to raise the odds that you will be excused after jury selection without being selected to serve on a jury. Juror Qualification letters and Juror Qualification forms are sent to people randomly selected from the voter rolls (these are not to be confused with the update cards found at the back of the Summons to Jury Duty). The qualification letters and qualification forms are used to determine who is qualified to sere jury duty. You can complete the Juror Qualification Letter or Juror Qualification form on-line or you can complete the paper qualification form, sign it and return it in the business reply envelope. There is a space on the front of the form if you wish to write a message. If you claim a medical hardship you must include a doctor's note. If you recently served Jury Duty in another Court, you must include a copy of your jury certificate. If you are found to be qualified for jury service, you will receive a Summons to Jury Duty at a later date.
