Milton meets Tom, the President of a powerful brotherhood. Kim visits Seaford and Jack envisions himself saving her from the forces taking her away. November 17, 2014 Disney XD A documentary crew comes to film the dojo for a day, and Rudy takes advantage to make himself look good. Jack, angry that Rudy won't give him the sensei test, retaliates by convincing Rudy's Grandmaster to fake being a fraud, demoting Rudy back to white belt. But Jack discovers that running the dojo is hard work. Meanwhile, after Jerry pranks him one time too many, Milton goes too far with pranks, not only on Jerry, but on the camera crew as well. The gang decides to buy themselves the ultimate gift - a boat. However, when they're short on cash and use money from a fund set aside for the Seaford Boys Club, their plan backfires and they host a telethon to raise funds. When Jerry disrespects Jack's authority as a sensei and throws an unauthorized party at the dojo, Jack suspends him from taking his black belt test. A frustrated Jerry makes a wish that Jack never came to the dojo, and when it comes true, he sees what life would be like if Jack had never been a Wasabi Warrior. Kim returns from Japan with her sensei, Tomo, who's interested in hiring Rudy for a position at the prestigious Otai. He interviews the gang about their sensei and after hearing about the impact he's had on their lives, Sensei Tomo makes Rudy the offer of a lifetime. Page 2 Page 3 Page 4 Page 5 Page 6
