This means that war, Rajeev and the Air Force boys are leaving. Rajeev just has time to declare his love to Mohini to say he wants to marry her. When are you meeting her? He doesn't know. The Indian his Air Force enters tireless action both day and night. The brother of Mohini with whom he remains is Winco Ranvir Batra, who has a seven-year-old son nicknamed Niju. Winco's wife died. His mother stays with him, too. Niju's birthday falls on December 7th and he will wear his new air force costume that asked his father to give him as a birthday present. Winco Ranvir and Sq. Leader Rajeev both want to participate in Niju's birthday if they can also for a few minutes. Flying on mission after the mission, dedicated Air Force boys show no signs of fatigue. If a friend does not return from a mission, he injects more fire into them to go into action again. The same day of Niju Winco Ranvir's birthday is engaged in a dog fight where his plane jumps out on the Indian territory, Winco Ranvir manages to land safely but is severely injured. He wants to go home to his son, but he's told that he needs surgery. He wants to talk to him on the phone. The nurse composes the number..... Niju arrives on the phone dressed in his new uniform, but before the nurse can deliver the phone to Ranvir is dead. The war moves furtheraction on all fronts. A Radar just acquired by the Pak Air Force that is equipped with jamming device demonstrates destructive for the Indian Air Force. The name of the pilot is Sq. Leader Usman Yusuf Zai, strives to meet Mrs Dayanti Batra who is the mother of Winco Ranvir. Usman's mother was Mrs. Batra's younger sister who had been kidnapped in Lahore during the partition, so Usman is the nephew of Mrs. Batra and cousin of Mohini. Her parents were killed in a car accident. She has a sister in a village just occupied by the Indian Army. Sq. Leader Usman is handed over to the authorities by the officer Flying Batra, younger brother of Winco Ranvir Batra, also in Air Force. After some bold missions. Mohini is called to air headquarters for a job as a doctor, but is asked by the intelligence of aviation to act as a spy. It resembles Usman's sister Tahira Yusuf Zai who is in custody of the Indian army. Tahira owns a letter of appointment on television for the work of announcer in the Pak troops program and engaged in a Pak pilot who probably works in the Radar complex. Mohini's work is to discover the Radar position and send it to the Indian Air Force. Tahira's leaders never saw her. Mohini seems very similar to Tahira and must impersonate her. take instructions and send information in code words, during transmission from Pakistan territory. There is no obligation for Mohini to accept thebut knowing that many aviation pilots are at stake that accepts. He is then escorted through the border in a helicopter of the Air Force. War continues. Incident after a bravery accident takes place. The day before the ceasefire Sq. Leader Rajeev is sent to a more important mission. This mission is the result of information provided by Mohini who is now impersonating Tahira. The mission if successfully carried out can mean the death of Mohini and Rajeev knows. Mohini knows Rajeev is in charge of the mission. She's in danger of being tortured as it was discovered that she's a spy. He prefers death with bombs that are made under the pressure of the Indian army. However, in the attack. Rajeev's plane is hit and jumps out. With great courage and skill Rajeev manages to enter the target area and save Mohini.
